Prostitution and Trafficking in Human Beings for Sexual Exploitation in Europe and Portugal

Launch of the campaign: "Together for a Europe free from Postitution" in Portugal

20 October 2011
CES – Picoas Plaza – Lisbon

9:00 h – Opening – Secretary of State / Representative

Trafficking in Human Beings for Sexual Exploitation in Europe and Portugal

A question of gender? The situation in Europe and Portugal

- Pierrette Pape – European Women's Lobby – A gendered approach to trafficking in human beings

- Manuel Albano – CIG – TBC – The Portuguese situation and the National Action Plan

- Joana Daniel-Wrabetz – Observatory of Trafficking in Human Beings – The Portuguese situation

- Paula Togni, Filipa Alvin – Portuguese Platform of the European Network of Migrant Women - Under the veil of human rights: Trafficking, Traffic and Public Policy for Immigration. A case study about Brazilian women in Portugal

- Ann Hamilton – Human Trafficking Foundation – A sustained and collective voice to combat trafficking in the UK

- Andrea Matolcsi – MONA Foundation – Combating prostitution and trafficking for sexual exploitation within, into and out of Hungary

Moderator: Margarida Medina Martins – PpDM

13.00 h – 14.30 h - Lunch

Prostitution – gender based violence/ human rights/ sexual abuse/ rape/ poverty/ patriarchal hierarchy/ social exclusion…

A question of gender? The situation in Europe and Portugal

- Pierrette Pape – European Women's Lobby – Prostitution is violence against women

- Margarida Medina Martins – PpDM

- Inês Fontinha – O Ninho – Exemples of Portuguese Cases

- Ann Hamilton – End Prostitution Now – Developing a holistic approach to prostitution: the End Prostitution Now campaign

- Andrea Matolcsi – MONA Foundation – Amsterdam's 'Nyíregyháza street' - results of research carried out by a Dutch social worker among Hungarian prostitutes

- Teresa Fragoso – CIG – Closing – TBC

Moderator: Vera Fonseca – PpDM

17.30 h - Launch of the EWL Campaign "Together for a Europe free from Prostitution" – Pierrette Pape and Margarida Medina Martins